

What is concrete laitance?

Why removing laitance on new power floated concrete is a must.

If you do not remove the laitance produced when finishing concrete, you will not have a suitable surface to adhere to for coatings, screeds, adhesives, car park decking, line markings and more.

So, you need accurate specifications. The Preparation Group has prepared millions of square metres of concrete since 1991 and can provide you with the solution you are looking for.